Ernie B. Blankenship was a graduate of the Hillsboro High School class of 1955. Throughout his high school career, Ernie excelled in football and baseball. Ernie always showed a love and appreciation for all sports. In 1959, as radio broadcaster for area football and basketball games, Ernie was dubbed and has remained the "Sports Voice of Southern Ohio".

In memory of Ernie's long-time commitment to NCB and his dedication to area athletes, NCB is offering three (3) $1,250 scholarships for the benefit of student athletes.

"Through the Ernie B. Blankenship Scholarship, NCB is pleased to make an investment in Highland and Clinton County by helping young people further their education."
